EMPTY OUT THE COUNTY BASTILE

With Freedom Given the Last Train Rider, only One Inmate will Remain and that a Girl. Lonely Times in the Corridors.

With the release on Saturday of Maurice Moxenovech from the Adams County jail, that institution will be left with only one inmate, Mary Plank, who has been under Sheriff Thompson's care for several months. Should no other prisoners be brought in during the next two weeks the jail will have its smallest Christmas dinner for many years.

The various sheriffs of the county have always taken pleasure in providing their "guests" with a bountiful repast on Christmas day and, while other citizens were enjoying the feasts at their homes, the men under the county officials' care have always been well taken care of. This year it looks as though Sheriff Thompson will have to make little extra preparation. The jail was entirely empty once within the last few years but such a condition in the middle of winter is a rare occurrence.

Moxenovech has been having a lonely time of it about the jail since the last other male prisoner left the place. He has no one with whom to talk, no form of amusement except reading and he tires of that, so that his imprisonment almost amounts to solitary confinement. Though given the best of care by the authorities, Moxenovech says he will certainly be glad when his sentence expires and he again gets his freedom.

He is the last of the train riders caught by Officer Wilson and given a jail term for the offense.

FILES HIS REASONS

Congressman Brodbeck to Contest Mr. Beales' Election.

Congressman-elect C. William Beales was on Wednesday served with an unusual notice at the instance of A. R. Brodbeck, the defeated Democratic candidate at the recent election. The papers alleging illegal means in securing Mr. Beales' election were served by Constable Charles H. Wilson.

Twenty-five reasons are given for the contest of election. Among them are the illegal use of money, the furnishing of liquor to voters, and undue influence on the part of employers over their employees. The contest papers also allege that, in some precincts, election officers were induced to leave the polls and that, during their absence, illegal votes were cast. An expenditure in excess of the $5000 allowed by law is alleged by Mr. Brodbeck to have been spent by Mr. Beales in securing his election.

The usual procedure would bring this before the Committee on Elections of the House of Representatives in December 1915. No earlier action would be taken except in the event of an extra session of Congress being called.

A NEW DAY

College Boys Set Apart Day to Return Others' Goods.

Next Saturday will be known at Gettysburg College as "Take It Back Day," the purpose of which, as its name indicates, is the return to your neighbor of all borrowed articles, with a pleasant "Thank You".

The number of articles borrowed and never returned during a few months by the college boys is appalling and as a little assistance to the memory of the careless and negligent, it was thought best by the Student Council to dedicate a day. The success of the plan depends entirely upon the spirit in which the students enter into it. "The Gettysburgian" says:

"There are few of us who can search our room without finding an article belonging to some one else and a good many more who, if they look, will be very much surprised at the number of things which can be claimed by others."

THE party who removed two brass pieces from smoking set in Bender's Furniture Store Wednesday at noon is known. Same can be returned and no questions asked.—advertisement 1

TOOK BIG DOSE OF STRYCHNINE

East Berlin Youth, Ill with Peritonitis Swallows Dozen Pills. Is now Reported to be in Serious Condition at his Home.

Taking twelve pills containing strychnine during a period of twenty-four hours, Paul Trimmer, son of Milton Trimmer, of East Berlin is in a critical condition at his home. The young man is twenty-one years old.

For several days he had been ill with peritonitis and was under the care of a physician who prescribed medicine in which strychnine was one of the ingredients. It was to be taken only three times a day but on Saturday the young man, instead of following directions, began taking the pills frequently and, before the day was over, had swallowed twelve of them.

He became very seriously ill and it required the most vigorous efforts to prevent fatal results. At the present time he is not suffering from the effects of the poison but his condition from peritonitis is regarded as grave. He is a son of Milton Trimmer who was formerly engineman on the East Berlin Railroad.

RAISING MONEY

Fairfield People Take Unusual Interest in Belgian Relief.

A letter received by the Fairfield Belgian Relief Committee from Charles C. Harrison Jr., and Company, bankers of Philadelphia, under date of December 8, states, "The need of additional funds is most urgent. The American Relief Committee in London estimates that it would take 3000 tons of food a day to feed the Belgians, at this time only one half that amount is being sent. So you see how necessary it is for us to continue the work."

Another friend's letter tells the Fairfield people that the splendid Alexandra Palace in the north of London is used as a clearing house for Belgian Refugees. Sometimes nearly 2000 pass through in a week. The committee having the coming food sale in charge at Fairfield is meeting with splendid success and persons who have liberally given several times are ready to give again, since they realize that a loaf of bread or a barrel of flour will not keep a family from starvation many days.

The Odd Fellows Hall is well equipped for occasions of this kind, and since it is kindly given rent free, the good people of Fairfield are doing their best to have the "food sale" on next Saturday December 12, and make this the largest return yet sent from that place. Another box of clothing is ready to be sent and any further clothing for this purpose will be gladly received and forwarded.

W. C. T. U. MEETING

Biglerville Organization Met at Kleinfelter Home.

The Biglerville W. C. T. U. met on Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Kleinfelter. After devotion, in charge of Mrs. Frank Naylor, and roll call responded to with sentiments, the minutes were read and approved. A reading from Wm. Jennings Bryan, "Why I Should Sign the Pledge", was given by Miss Rice. A talk by Miss Heiges on "What Can We Do?" followed. Rae Weaver then sang a solo and Miss Longsdorf read "What the Press Superintendent Should Do". Miss Eva Fohl sang a solo and each member told what she knew of the growth of the temperance sentiment in the town. The meeting adjourned to meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Bowers early in January.

WILL PLAY WITH THE ATHLETICS

York Springs Boy Expected to Appear on Pitching Staff of Connie Mack Next Season. Has Had a Successful Career.

Now that Eddie Plank will be no longer a star on the Athletic base ball team Adams County fans need not lose interest in that organization for a York Springs ball player, Jim Myers, will be with Connie next year according to the latest report.

Myers has been with the Raleigh team for the past two years and as early as last August the manager, Earl Mack, informed his famous father, that Jim was ready for the big show but the elder Mack was then in the tightest part of his pennant race and had enough twirlers without Myers.

Jim is 20 years of age, stands 6 feet 2 inches in his stocking feet and weighs 190 pounds and has the speed of a Bender. He pitched his first game of ball on July 4th, 1911, for the York Springs team against Dr. Dill's Biglerville team and won his game.

In 1912 Myers made a great record and after the close of the season at York Springs was asked to come to Shibe Park for a tryout and was signed by Mack and sent to Raleigh in the spring of 1913 where he has remained for the past two years.

BEAMER—ORNER

Pretty Wedding at Home of Hanson Taylor Near Arendtsville.

At half past eleven this morning the wedding of Miss May E. Orner and Alvin A. Beamer took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hanson W. Taylor, near Arendtsville. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. C. Hesson in the presence of a large number of friends.

The bride and bridegroom were unattended, and the wedding march was played by Miss Ruth Klepper. After the ceremony, dinner was served to the guests and, during the day, the newlyweds left for a wedding trip to Harrisburg and points west. Upon their return they will reside in Menallen township where Mr. Beamer is engaged in farming.

The bride is a daughter of Michael Orner, of Gettysburg, but has been living for some time with Mr. and Mrs. Taylor as an adopted daughter. Mr. Beamer is a son of Mrs. Calvin Beamer, of Menallen township.

SHOT 96 COWS

East Berlin Man with Others Loses Many Cattle.

H. J. March, the East Berlin stock dealer, well known here, had a carload of cattle condemned and killed at Black Rock, Montgomery county, recently. The carload contained 23 cows, 19 calves, 12 large steers and one registered Holstein bull valued at $150. Mr. March thinks his stock contracted the foot and mouth disease from another shipper who had unloaded a car of stock at the same place just the day before. Mr. March says he is in one of the worst stricken districts in the state. It is cleaning out the best dairies in Montgomery county. Among the six taken right around him is one of 96 head owned by a Mr. Landis who furnished 1000 quarts of milk daily for the Norristown asylum. It took a trench 190 feet long, 7 feet deep and 7 feet wide to bury the carcasses of the 96 milk cows. A cow boy from Montana shot the entire herd in one hour and 30 minutes.

LIFTED QUARANTINE

Cattle Ban Lifted in Fourteen Counties. Adams Not Included.

The state livestock board has relieved fourteen counties from quarantine for foot and mouth disease, leaving 28 still on the list in which any movement of cattle is prohibited. Adams County is not among those on the list relieved. It was stated that cases recently reported came from counties previously infected.

Judge Swope, Sheriff Thompson and the jury commissioners are to-day filling the jury wheel for January term of Court.

CHRISTMAS IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Children of Gettysburg Schools from First Grade to High School will Give Entertainments of the Holiday Season.

Gettysburg's public schools are preparing to celebrate in proper fashion the advent of the holiday season and, before they close for the Christmas recess, almost all of them will have some special exercises. The rooms will be decorated in holiday greens and interesting programs have been arranged.

Rivalry between the two literary societies at the High School will be laid aside for the time being and both the Palm and Clover Leaf organizations will join to give a Christmas entertainment in the auditorium of the building on the Wednesday before Christmas. Under the direction of the capable corps of instructors at the school an attraction worthy of the local schools may be expected.

At the Meade building there will be four separate and distinct programs. The Grammar Department will render its exercises on the afternoon of December 23. The three teachers, Miss Rummel, Miss Benner and Miss Miller, are instructing the girls and boys for the event and they may be relied upon to give a good account of themselves. At the same time Miss Major's Fifth and Sixth Grade pupils will be having their exercises, and Miss Rosa Scott's Third and Fourth Grade children will be giving their program. On the afternoon of December 22, at 2:45 the tots in Miss Ruff's room in this building—forty seven of them—will have their entertainment and every one will have some part in it.

In the High Street school building Miss Stoops' First Grade pupils, and Miss Sachs' Second Grade children will have their exercises to-morrow, Friday, afternoon. Each room will have its own program. Recitations and songs will be the features of the entertainments and there will also be exhibits of the work of their pupils during the first three months of the school year.

All of the other rooms in the High Street building had exercises about Thanksgiving time and, on account of this and the fact that so many of the children will take part in Sunday School programs, the other rooms in this building will not have special Christmas programs. A few days before Christmas they will have informal observances of the season with old-time songs of the Yule-tide, so that the time will not go by entirely without notice.

Miss Sachs' program will begin at 1:30 on Friday and Miss Stoops' at 2:30, allowing visitors to attend both.

With a ten days' vacation this year the pupils are all looking forward to a pleasant relief from their school duties and are planning many ways of spending their time. Some of them will go to other towns to visit, while the remainder will stay at home and get all the fun they can out of what sports the weather will afford. Of course, the majority of them are hoping for skating and sleighing, to get them in fine trim for the opening of the long winter term which will be practically unbroken until the short Easter recess.

STILL FIGHTING

Post Office Bone of Contention. Emmitsburg Contest Warm.

The contest over the Emmitsburg post office is becoming warm. The term of the present efficient incumbent, Mr. Horner, will expire in February, and lines are being drawn as to his successor. The office pays $1,800 per year, with good salaries for deputy and clerk. The leading candidates for the place are Mr. Enoch Frizzell and Dr. J. M. Forman. Both are strongly backed, but it is reported that the Democratic district committee, by a vote of six to four, has endorsed Mr. Frizzell.

Representative Lewis will probably have the final say as to the appointee, and his usual custom is to recommend the man endorsed by the local party committee.

SNOW'S DAMAGE

Trees and Branches Over the Roads. Timber Ruined.

The ravages of the snow, sleet and rain storm have been multifold and costly on the mountains about Pen Mar. Branches and whole trees weighted with the snow and ice had fallen down over roads and residents had to clear off the debris before travel could get through. Thousands of young trees were snapped off and the loss will be serious.

Along Monterey avenue the destruction of the trees was appalling. The fine rows of maples were almost denuded of their branches. Around the cottages shade trees and shrubbery were leveled or badly injured by loss of branches.

No such destructive storm has been known in many years in that region.

LADIES! Darken
Your Gray Hair
 Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody will Know.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy", you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and abundant.

 Make Your Own Cough Medicine

The difference in buying one of the most efficient, latest and up-to-date cough and cold remedies (which can be made at home), and buying the old, ordinary, ready-made kind, is that with the new one you get all pure medicine, instead of buying a large proportion of sugar and water, besides paying for bottles, corks and labels; and it usually requires 2 to 3 bottles of the old-fashioned, ready-made remedies to break up a cough or cold, while 2 ounces (50c worth) of Schiffmann's new Concentrated Expectant, which is so strongly concentrated that 2 ounces, when mixed at home with simply one pint of granulated sugar and one-half pint of water, make a full pint (16 ounces) of excellent cough remedy, and will be sufficient to probably last the whole family the entire winter. It positively contains no chloroform, opium, morphine or other narcotics, and is so pleasant that children like to take it. Arrangements have been made with drug store named below to refund the money to any person who finds it does not give perfect satisfaction, or if it is not found the very best remedy ever used for coughs, colds, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and hoarseness. DYNAMITE KILLS 13 IN MINE SHAFT

Explosion Dropped on Cage
Blows It to Pieces.

ONLY ONE ESCAPED DEATH

The Victims Are Hurled 100 Feet to Death at the Bottom of the Mine Shaft.

Scranton, Pa., Dec. 10.—Thirteen miners going to work in the Diamond shaft of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Coal company here met a horrible death, the carriage on which they were descending the shaft being blown to pieces by the dropping of a box of dynamite by one of the men.

Their mangled bodies have been recovered from the mine into which they fell, 100 feet below the point where the explosion occurred, but as far only five have been identified.

One man escaped alive. He is Martin Belinski, a driver boss, who was hurled into the Clark vein, which the carriage was passing when the explosion occurred, and where he was found by rescuers attracted by his moans. His injuries are slight, but he appears to be like one crazed by the shock.

The bodies of the victims have been removed to morgues, some of them headless, and others without arms or legs.

The names of the victims so far as learned are: Thomas Thomas, an old-time miner living in West Scranton, who was helping in the carriage by another of the men; Joseph Lubinski, John Poskey, John Lesavage and George Barr.

Scores of mine workers were on hand at the mouth of the shaft awaiting their turn to be lowered. Suddenly the roar of the explosion went up to the head house, driving back the men who were about to step on the other carriage. They were none too quick, for the carriage, released by the shock of the explosion, crashed down the shaft.

The disaster is the worst in the mines of the Lackawanna valley in a score of years, excepting the Pan-coast disaster of four years ago.

The part of the city in which the mine is located is less than half a mile from the business center. Thousands hurriedly gathered at the head of the shaft. The field about the shaft house was soon filled with waiting women and children, imploring news concerning their husbands and fathers, sons and brothers.

TWO KILLED IN TRAIN CRASH

Eight Also Injured, Two of Them Fatally.

Hoversford, Pa., Dec. 10.—Two trainmen were killed, two others fatally injured and six passengers were slightly hurt when train No. 14, of the Philadelphia & Reading crashed head-on into a freight train.

A mix-up in signals is believed to have caused the wreck. The passenger train was slowing up when it hit the freight, which was pulling for the main track from a siding. Both engines were demolished.

The dead are Joseph Stininger, of Tamaqua, Pa., passenger train engineer, and Carl Fisher, of Reading, Pa., freight train engineer.

Joseph W. Stahler, of Tamaqua, and Paul Leidy, of Port Carbon, firemen, are dying in the Phoenixville hospital.

EDISON'S PLANT BURNED

Seven Concrete and Five Frame Buildings Go Up in Smoke.

West Orange, N. J., Dec. 10.—Three quarters of the plant of Thomas A. Edison, Inc., one of the wonders of the scientific world, where the great wizard worked out practically all his wonderful inventions, was destroyed by fire.

Seven five-story concrete buildings and seven small frame structures were wiped out. It is believed that the damage may approximate $4,000,000, although the loss may be still more when the final inventory of the loss is taken.

Enamored Deacon Kills Girl 12

St. Louis, Dec. 10.—Nannie Stricklin, twelve years old, was shot and killed in the front yard of her home here by Robert Bailey, a deacon at a mission, who said he "had been trying to reform the girl." Bailey shot himself and was taken to a hospital in a dying condition. Mrs. Clara Stricklin, mother of the girl, said that Bailey, for more than a year, had annoyed her in efforts to adopt the child, saying he wanted to marry her when she was grown.

Frank's Execution Date Set

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 10.—Leo M. Frank was re-sentenced to death for the murder of Mary Phagan, a fourteen-year-old factory girl. Judge Ben H. Hill fixed Frank's execution for Monday, Jan. 12. Frank made a statement to the court protesting his innocence.

Charles Bayard Trail Dead

Frederick, Md., Dec. 10.—Charles Bayard Trail, formerly secretary of the United States legation at Paris and consul at Marseilles, France, died here.

3 Square Deal Needed for Humorists

Christmas A Story by Zona Gale

CHAPTER VIII.

"About" Mary Chavah.

"I took the day before Christmas and had a lot for Christmas," observed Miss Winslow, "would that I had!"

"But you got out," said Miss Winslow, "in the memorable manner of youth."

"Would it, would it, would it?" persisted Miss Winslow, "in the memorable manner of youth."

"And have Theophilus Thistle-down for dinner that day instead?" Miss Winslow suggested with diplomacy.

On which Miss Winslow's tongue was in his mouth.

But, like adults immediately, Miss Winslow's tongue was in his mouth.

After breakfast she stood staring out the pretty window at the sparrows on the bird box.

"It looks like Mary Chavah was going to be the only one in Trail Town to have any Christmas after all," she thought, "that little boy coming to her."

He was coming week after next, Mary had said, and Miss Winslow had heard no word about it from anybody else.

When "the biggest of the work" of the forenoon was finished Miss Winslow ran down the road to Ellen Bourne's.

In Old Trail Town they always speak of it as running down, or in, or over, in the morning with an unconscious suiting of terms to formalities.

Ellen was cleaning her silver. She had "six of each"—six knives, six forks, six spoons, all plated and seldom used, powder with black handles serving for every day.

The silver was cleaned often, though it was never on the table, save for company, and there never had been any company since Ellen had lost her little boy from fever.

Having no articulateness and having no other outlet for emotion she fed her grief by small abstinences—no guests, no diversions, no snatches of song about her work.

Yet she was sane enough and normal, only in dearth of sane and normal outlets for emotion, for energy, for personality she had taken these strange directions for yet unbalanced forces.

"Mercy," observed Miss Winslow, warning her hands at the cooking stove, "you get more energy!"

"Then, finally, I guess you mean," Ellen Bourne finished. Ellen was little and fair, with slightly drooping head, and eyebrows curved to a childlike reflectiveness.

"Well, I got considerable more family than I got energy," said Miss Winslow, "so I guess we even it up. Seven under fifteen eats up energy like so much air."

"Hey, king and country!" said Ellen's old father, whistling by the fire, "you got family enough, Ellen. You got your hands full of us." He rubbed his hands through his thin upstanding silver hair on his little pink head, and his fine, pink face took on the look of father which rarely intruded, now, on his settled look of old man.

"I dunno what she'd do," said Ellen's mother, "with any more around here to pick up after. We're cluttered up enough as it is." She was an old lady of whose outlines you took notice before your attention lay further upon her—angled waist, chin, lips, forehead, put on her a succession of zigzags. But her eyes were awake, and it was to be seen that she did not mean what she said and that she was looking anxiously at Ellen in the hope of having deceived her daughter. Ellen smiled at her brightly, and was not deceived.

"I keep pretty busy," she said.

Miss Abby Winslow, who was not deceived either, hastened to the subject of Mary.

"I should think Mary Chavah had enough to do, too," she said, "but she's going to take Lily's little boy. Had you heard?"

"No," Ellen said, and stopped shaving silver polish.

"He's coming in two weeks," Miss Winslow, interrupted, "She told me so."

Instant relief—no waiting. Your clogged nostrils open right up; the air passages of your head clear and you can breathe freely. No more hacking, snuffling, blowing, headache, dryness. No struggling for breath at night; your cold or catarrh disappears.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic, healing cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothes the inflamed or swollen mucous membrane and relief comes instantly.

It's just fine. Don't stay stuffed up with a cold or nasty catarrh.

Strength of character is not mere strength of feeling—it is the resolute restraint of strong feeling.

DOINGS OF THE VAN LOONS

HOW THIS MOTHER GOT STRENGTH

Mrs. Eddy Had Only Three in Family, Yet Was So Nervous and Worn Out Could Not Do the Work.

Fair Haven, Vt.—"I was so nervous and run-down that some days I could not do my housework for my family of three. My nerves were very weak and I had pains around my heart. I had doctored for about two years without help. One day a Vinol booklet was left at our door and I decided to try it, and thanks to Vinol my health has been restored, so I can do my work once more."

"I have told my neighbors about Vinol and shall always praise it for what it has done for me." Mrs. JAMES H. EDDY, Fair Haven, Vt.

What Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil did for Mrs. Eddy it will do for every nervous, weak, run-down man or woman in this vicinity. Vinol creates an appetite, re-establishes perfect digestion and makes good pure blood. In this natural manner it builds up the run-down, weak and debilitated, and replaces weakness with strength.

Try a bottle with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you.
